Port District Studying Need for Bulk Handling Facilities

Tri-City Regional Port District commissioners authorized Secretary Carl A. Ranft to determine rates of other ports in a study of the possible need for bulk unloading facilities at the Granite City Harbor on the Chain of Rocks canal.

Ranft told the board at a meeting Monday afternoon that interest in bulk unloading facilities is being revived and that he has received several inquiries. He added that container shipping for overseas movement also is being explored. The U. S. and Japan are building ships of special design for containers, he added.

The port board secretary reported on recent port manager and maritime meetings he has attended at Carbondale and New York City and suggested the commissioners consider employment of an engineering firm in the field of harbor and port design and aid the local district with future developments.

He explained the trend is to keep the immediate harbor area uncluttered to cope with future developments. Several prospective port clients are in the office, he added, but no firm commitment have been completed.

Interest Rate Problem

Port Atty. Randall Robertson was asked to study the port district's control legislation to determine if the bond issue interest rate could be increased from the present 5% limit to 7% to cope with current changes in financing. The commissioners plan to ask for such action at the next meeting of the state legislature. Other agencies are seeking the same action, Ranft said.

Robertson also is to determine if the commission can elect a vice-chairman and assistant treasurer.

The chairmanship now is held by Harold R. Fischer, president of the First Granite City National Bank, and H. D. Karandjoff, chairman of the boards of the Granite City Trust & Savings and American National Banks, is the treasurer.

The board took no action on the tentative salary of $15,000 a year for Secretary Ranft, who relinquished the board chairmanship for the new office in October when Port Manager John Barron died. Barron's salary was $20,000.

Future leases for any tracts in the 280 acres of Port District property are to be limited to 10 years because of rising valuations of port property throughout the nation.

The Port District itself leases 217 acres from the Corps of Engineers at a cost of $4,000 a year, of which 75% is returned to Madison county in lieu of taxes.

Taken to the police station from the scene for investigation were Stephen Underwood, 18, of 138 Kinder lane, Mitchell, and William Owens, 17, of 2127a Delmar avenue. A small pane of glass was broken out of the west side door.

Charges of Burglary Dropped, Man Fined

Burglary charges against three St. Louis county residents who were arrested in the Scotchwash laundry, 3204 Nameoki road, on Thanksgiving Day, were dismissed Monday by Magistrate Hiscott in Edwardsville.

One of the defendants, Richard J. Whitney, 30, of Wellston, Mo., pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of theft of $150 and was fined $100 plus $10 costs. An accompanying charge of illegal possession of burglary tools was dropped.

The other defendants were David Whitney, 31, and Judith Whitney, 30, both of Shrewsbury, Mo. An illegal possession charge against her also was dismissed.

Police were called to the scene by an automatic burglar alarm set off by "bugged" devices on the washers and dryers. Police recovered $57 in quarters and dimes and two machine skeleton keys found in the laundry room.

Madison Officials Critical of Water Co. for Bad Taste

Madison Mayor Stephen Maeras was critical of the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. because of the recent bad taste of water caused by phenol during a meeting of the city council Tuesday night.

He said numerous complaints were received from residents who became ill and nauseated from drinking the water.

"We need a complete and detailed explanation," he said, adding that "we should learn by past mistakes." He said he will talk with officials of the utility, and hopes the public can be informed as to the cause immediately.

It was suggested that in the future the water company discharge such distasteful water through its mains, perhaps by opening fire plugs in all communities.

Seeks Inquiry

John Gitchoff, corporation counsel, called for an inquiry by the city and asked why the water company could not detect the pollution sooner.

"I don't understand how that much of the substance can get into the purification plant," he said. "You can be sure that water will not be deducted from the people's bills."

Complaints of fire plugs being located too close to curbs in some locations also were discussed.

Mayor Stephen Maeras said some autos are damaged when motorists park close to hydrants and bang their doors against them. He said he will discuss the matter with the water company's office manager in Granite City.

The council took under advisement a request from the Nativity of the Virgin Mary Eastern Orthodox Church that the city take jurisdiction of a 400-lumen street light installed at the church a year ago to help control vandalism and thefts there.

Command Police

A letter was read from Granite City Police Chief Raymond Willard commending Madison police officers Edward Zabotka and Richard Krieschok for their work in apprehending armed robbers following a robbery at a Granite City tavern recently.

Fourth Ward Alderman Steve Kello noted that some city trees are extending over streets and sidewalks and need trimming. Mayor Maeras said generally it is the responsibility of residents to prevent this, except in unusual circumstances.

The council passed resolutions designating the rest of Kennedy drive from Greenwood street to McCambridge avenue as an arterial street, appropriated $20,000 in motor fuel tax funds for maintenance of arterial streets during 1967, and requested an additional $169 in MFT funds to pay for alterations in plans for storm water catch basins along Washington avenue.

The council approved a $2000 surety bond with the Maryland Casualty Co. for special watchman Gene Robinson beginning Nov. 1.

It was reported that the city refunded $61 for outstanding Chain of Rocks Bridge toll tickets during November.

Fire Chiefs Issue Annual Yule Tree Tips

Fire chiefs of the Quad-Cities area are joining with the national program for a safe Christmas holiday season, and upon noting this week that Christmas trees are beginning to appear in homes, are passing on tips to prevent tragic fires.

The chiefs advise: "When you shop for your Christmas tree, make certain you get a fresh tree. Brush the needles with your hand—if some drop off, choose another.

"Keep your tree in a pail of water and out-of-doors until you set it up in the house.

"Place the tree in the coolest part of a room—away from radiators, hot air ducts, heaters and fireplaces.

"It is a good plan to use a stand with a water container, and check the container daily for refilling.

Flameproof Decorations
"When you decorate your tree, use flameproof decorations. The safest ones are made of glass or metal.

"Safe lights on a tree are highly important. Before putting on tree lights, check the wires and sockets. Those with frayed wires or faulty connections or plugs should be discarded. When buying new lights, be sure they bear the UL label of Underwriters' Laboratories.

"If you use an electric train as part of your Christmas display, set up the tracks away from the tree. A spark from a toy train could start a fire.

"Remember to turn off Christmas tree lights at bedtime, and when there is no one in the room. In particular, do not leave lights on when nobody is home.

"Throughout the holiday season, check the Christmas tree frequently to be sure it is not becoming too dry. Also check needles near lights, and if they seem brittle, change the position of the light.

"Metal trees should never be decorated with Christmas lights—there's always the chance of a short-circuit. Off-the-tree lighting should be used.

"Christmas trees in the yard should be decorated with heavy-duty cords, especially designed for outdoor use.

"On Christmas Eve or Christmas morning, when gifts are opened, all wrappings should be picked up immediately."

Trust Bank Adds Space On Edison Parking Lot

Added off-street parking for patrons of Granite Trust & Savings Bank is being carried out with the razing of a storage structure that was on the existing lot across the street from the bank in the 1900 block of Edison avenue.

The concrete block building was torn down yesterday, and will add one-third more capacity to the lot which provides 15 minute free parking for the bank's customers.

H. D. Karandjef, chairman of the bank's board, said the building had been used for storage by Southwick Hardware.

Chanukah Observance To Begin Wednesday

Chanukah, the Jewish Festival of Lights, will begin next Wednesday, Dec. 7, at sundown and will continue for eight days.

The religious observances are for the victory of spiritual Jewry over military and political despotism.

Specialized Services Center Official Opening on Monday

The Specialized Services Center, 2007 Madison avenue, will officially open for business next Monday and will provide employment for handicapped persons of the Quad-Cities. Over 40 applicants are being processed.

Milton Morris of Venice, member of the local Advisory Council for the center, said ironings are needed, and reservations for the service may be made by telephoning TR 6-245.

The center has six ironing boards and irons and is making provision to expand the number to 12 when the equipment becomes available.

Other workers already have started on a contract for repairing damaged wooden soda cases. The center presently is being managed by Joseph Budde of Alton, but a local wheelchair victim is to be hired for

State Seeks Data On Road Oil Costs

Mayor Partney advised council members Monday night that he has been asked by the attorney general's office at Springfield to furnish data costs of road oil maintenance projects in the city since 1936.

He explained the state office is seeking similar information from all municipalities and road districts in Madison, Jersey and Greene counties to determine if there are any indications of price fixing. "We might end up with a refund," Partney added.

Alderman Robertson suggested the attorney general office might get the data from the state highway department office. The city buys road oil and liquid asphalt through state motor fuel tax funds and also from the city's street maintenance funds.

Eberhardt added that he has received complaints on dumping on Old Alton-St. Louis road north of Nameoki and on the canal road.

6 Area Motorists Lose Driving Privileges

The fourth revocation for "displayed license not issued to you" was ruled for Gerald T. Myatt of Benton street.

The suspensions for three traffic violations were handed down for Arno H. Cohl, 2227 Delmar avenue, and Clarence L. Gibson, 2533 North street.

Granted a probationary permit was William E. McKee, 1348 East Rock road.

Quad-City Area Rainfall 4 Inches Below Normal

Rainfall in the Quad-City area totaled 3.18 inches during November, or .61 of an inch above normal November rainfall of 2.57 inches—but the area still lags 4.84 inches below the normal fall for this time of year.

Records at the Chain of Rocks Canal locks showed rainfall seven days of the month, with downpours of more than one inch on two separate days. On Nov. 10, rainfall measured 1.57 inch and on Nov. 27 a fall of 1.07 inch was registered.

Rainfall also was recorded on Nov. 5 with .4 inch, on Nov. 8 with 1 inch, Nov. 9 with .01 inch, Nov. 25 with .12 inch and Nov. 26 with .11 inch. The total monthly total was in considerable contrast to that of November last year, when only .26 inch was registered for the entire month.

The November rainfall increased to 28.46 inches the total for the 11 months of this year, or 4.04 inches less than the 32.50 inches normal fall for the period. The total fall during November also was 2.17 inches greater than the total of .99 of an inch recorded during October.

No rainfall was recorded on 19 days of November, while a trace—moisture too slight to be recorded on the gauge—registered four days.

Total rainfall for all of 1965 amounted to 31.14 inches, or 5.57 inches under the full year's normal of 36.71 inches.

Retain School Auditor for Year

The Granite City school board on Monday night authorized C. J. Schlosser & Co. to audit school records for the 1966-67 year for $3800, an increase of $300 over the $3500 maximum fee paid annually since 1961-62.

No action was taken on the 1967-68 year, for which Schlosser has suggested a $4100 maximum.

For a $150 monthly charge the auditing firm has been making monthly visits to the school business office to sort cancelled checks, prepare a bank reconciliation sent directly to the school treasurer, maintain manual posting and necessary adjustments of general ledger accounts, prepare a summary report for the school board and provide advice and assistance in preparation of claim forms.

The other $2000 of the $3800 fee is to cover an annual audit of all funds, including 20 activity and records maintained by various schools, and preparation of the annual school district financial report.

Authorization was given by the board Monday night to apply for government equipment suitable for vocational instruction through the National Industrial Equipment Reserve.

The equipment would be provided on a loan basis, with the borrowing school district paying transportation costs and maintaining the machines. The equipment could be recalled by the U. S. in the event of a national emergency occurring before the equipment is obsolete.

It was decided to purchase six IBM Selectric typewriters as instructional electric typewriter replacements. Cost will be $1500, less $360 trade-in for six Smith Corona typewriters.

Acting on bids, the board ordered office paper supplies totaling $300 from Graham's Bookstore, 25 electric wall clocks costing a total of $200 from Blackwell Wiendy Co., 12 dozen cafeteria trays totaling $360 from Peerless Hotel Supply and a 20-quart mixer bowl costing $25 from Ford Hotel Supply.

Trojans Host Oilers Devils Win in To Open New Season Meet 87-39, Play Tonight

Inexperience and injuries are two main problems cited by Madison high school basketball coach Earl McClanahan that may delay the Trojans during the early part of the 1966-67 season, which will open at MHS tomorrow night.

One probable starter for Friday night's opener with Wood River, Steve Geroff, has an ankle problem that caused him to miss the final six weeks of cage play last season.

Titus Shipp would have been a likely starter, McClanahan said, but he is out of the picture for so far because of an injury.

"This will be our first regularly scheduled game with Wood River. We beat them twice last year in tournaments. They have played two games already this year and so will have the advantage tomorrow," McClanahan commented.

Probable Starters

Three returning lettermen, Ron Burt, Gary Lusk and Geroff, are expected to start with Neal Podoba and Alfred Boyd completing the first five.

Burt is a two-year letterman, and the other four have one season's experience.

"We don't use a regular position offense or defense," the coach related. "We usually end up with the tallest man around the basket. We will try the press on defense and use a controlled fast break mostly on offense."

McClanahan added that the Trojans have no fully experienced men in rebounding, and that duty probably will fall primarily to Boyd (6'2") and Geroff (6'2").

Public Interest Key to School Basketball Success - HS Coach

Student and parent interest is a major element in developing a school basketball program of the type viewed in Collinsville, where the starting junior varsity team, Sackett, said.

A seven-ward letterman at Collinsville high, Sackett said coordination of junior high and high school basketball instruction here should aid in producing an outstanding team in two or three years or sooner.

Citing a turnout of 50 for a park-sponsored basketball program here, the coach said a similar project in Collinsville might attract 500 boys.

Although this community still has not caught the Kahok band of basketball fever - many tall boys fail to try out for the Warriors team - a winning squad could lead to this type of interest developing, the club was told. Crowd support also was described as vital.

Collinsville boys from the time they are old enough to bounce basketball set their sights on earning a high school basketball uniform, he noted, adding that the Warriors are following a code of dedication, manners, fitness and scholarship that in time should earn equal public respect.

Pressure, Deliberation
The three high school coaches here all teach a zone-pressure type of defense with a deliberate style of offense, Sackett explained.

Due to the numerous techniques that must be mastered, players practice free throws for 45 minutes before school each morning and then take part in training and practice from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. daily, the coach reported.

The current Warriors varsity includes one sophomore starter and another sophomore who may see extensive varsity action as well as joining two other sophomores at the starting junior varsity team, Sackett said.

With non-starting older boys dropped from the squad, the Warriors are in a building process this year but also hope to improve on their 15-12 record of 1965-66. Even the Kahoks, an overwhelming powerhouse last year, will know they have been in a game when they meet Granite City, he predicted.

Sackett was introduced by John Polson, program chairman, and was accompanied by Principal Lawrence McCauley.

President William Thoeke presided and Jack Kulekian honored on his birthday. Plans were made to mark the "Lights" contribution to the Jan. 3 Rotary meeting at the Specialized Services production center in the 2000 block of Madison avenue.

A copy of the Granite City Rotary Horse Show booklet is to be presented to Rotary International President Richard Evans at a dinner to be attended by 1600 persons in St. Louis Dec. 15.

JC Bowling Sweepstakes To Start Next Monday

Granite City Jaycees will be on hand beginning Monday to sign up bowlers for their seventh annual "Bowling Sweepstakes" to be held Monday through Friday of next week during regular league play at the Brunswick 10-Mor and Bowland lanes.

Proceeds from the event will be used to renovate the Granite City police firing range building, which the Jaycees, and purchase playground equipment to be used on grounds adjacent to the building.

League members bowling at Tri-Mor and Bowland are eligible to compete for cash prizes in both the men's and women's divisions. Winners will be determined on a handicap of 79% of the difference between 210 and actual average.

Scores bowled in regular league competition during the five nights will be used.

Niecek, who is serving as sweepstakes chairman, said that prize money will be based on the number of entrants in each division. Estimated prizes for men and women are: $100, first place; $50, second place; $25, third place; $12.50, high scratch single; and $12.50, high scratch three.

Niecek said the prize money is estimated from the 1965 sweepstakes project, which attracted 400 men and 400 women competitors.

A $1 entrant's fee is contributed by each bowler, the chairman added.

Paddlers Ready To Start Tennis Court Project

Most expansion projects authorized last year by Paddlers' Swim Club stockholders have been completed and construction of the new surface tennis courts adjacent to the pool site may get under way next year, according to the directors of the private swim club.

Paddlers' members heard detailed reports on the progress of the expansion and remodeling program at the club's annual stockholders meeting, conducted last night in the Elks Club ballroom. Approximately 40 attended. Francis E. McBride, board president, presided.

Installation of fencing around the entire pool area has substantially decreased the amount of vandalism at the pool site this year. Mickey Loftus, executive vice-president, said. He described other work accomplished in 1966, including construction of a second 25-meter pool, and extensive remodeling and enlargement of the bathhouse and concession facility, paving of the parking area and construction of a circular driveway, fronting the buildings.

How strong is the 1966-67 edition of the Granite City high school basketball Warriors? It is too soon to know, but an indication was given in the season opener at Roxana Tuesday night when Ralph Sackett's captains showed "first game jitters" to trail 17-16 at the quarter and 21-21 at the half, but then erased in their target to win 69-57 at a 20-10 third-period performance and an 18-14 last-quarter edge.

Both clubs hit a respectable 48% from the field, but Warrior pressure tactics in the third quarter caused many turnovers and enabled the visitors to get more shots at the goal. Granite City had a 27-23 superiority in field goals.

The Warriors' every-morning free throw practice paid off with a 15-of-19 tally compared to Roxana's 11 of 24.

Jim Hentzel and Terry Moore, co-captains, led the charge with 21 points apiece, sophomore Gary Simpson tallied 13, Jim Stuart 11 and Mike Hoy three. Sophomore Roger Belshie also saw varsity action.

GCHS captured the junior varsity game 60-55, led by Jeff Jones 16, Belshie 15, John Van-Baskin 10, Don Rains' eight and Richard Hutchings' eight points, the latter including two clutch field goals in the last minute.

Three Cues Wins for Madison Junior High

Madison junior high school came teams playing four games this week, winning three.

Against Prather of Granite City Tuesday, the Madison eighth grade won 36-30 and the seventh grade won 33-14. Lynn Schmidt tallied 15, with Virgil Keeton and John Ireland, each scoring nine for Prather.

All-New Team Selected, Includes Moore of GCHS

Individual statistics show that the Press-Record's ninth annual All-Southwestern Conference grid team represents the "cream of the crop" of conference schools and would be a formidable opponent for any prep squad.

Conference champion East St. Louis placed three men on the 1966 all-conference team. Belleville West, Alton and Wood River have two representatives each, and there were lone selections from Granite City and Collinsville, with no Edwardsville player chosen for the first team.

The Press-Record's all-conference football team was chosen by the SW conference head football coaches, with each coach voting for any player except those on his own team.

There were no returnees from 1965 All-Conference team, but increased experience enabled Jim Robertson and Art Garrett, East St. Louis, Mike Hudock, Wood River, Art Capstick, Collinsville, and Rick Sterling, Belleville West, to jump from last season's honorable mention list to the all-conference team.

Terry Moore, Granite City, advanced from a second team end slot to all-conference end this year, and Houston Haynes, East St. Louis, did the same in a tackle berth.

ALL-STAR ENDS
SW coaches selected Terry Moore of Granite City and Rick Sterling of Belleville West as all-conference ends.

Moore was the Warriors' star punter, averaging 40.1 yards in 29 times kicking. In his second year of regular play, Moore caught 17 passes for 262 yards, blocked one punt and recovered two fumbles.

The 207-pound Sterling, who doubled as a kicker, totaled 138 yards on offense this season for an average of 11.5 yards per catch. He successfully kicked 17 of 26 extra point attempts for an average of 69% and booted two of three field goals for 47%.

On defense, Sterling totaled 34 tackles and was responsible for two fumble recoveries during the season.

TACKLE POSTS
Houston Haynes of East St. Louis nailed down one of the all-conference tackle posts. The 236-pound senior was given credit for opening holes for flier backs. Coach Fred Cameron said, "His greatest assets are his quickness, strength and durability."

Cameron told the Press-Record that Haynes and Garrett (1966 SW guard) played in only one losing game during their high school careers. Haynes played defense as a junior but was switched to offense this year.

Brian Dickerson of Alton, who as a junior was the Redbirds' leading defensive lineman in the end slot, was selected for the other all-conference tackle post this year.

A 220-pound lineman who can run the 50-yard dash in 6.1 seconds, Dickerson is described by Redbird coach Ed Yonkus as a "big, strong, quick lineman" and an outstanding downfield blocker.

GUARD SELECTIONS
Art Capstick was selected for the guard positions on the all-conference team. A senior at Collinsville, he led the Kahoks in piling the way for their speedy backs.

Described by Coach Frank Pitot as an outstanding offensive blocker, "especially when the squad will play Emge next Tuesday at 8 p.m."

ior was selected as "most valuable player at Collinsville." The other guard position was won by East St. Louis' Arthur Garrett, who like teammate Haynes has played in only one losing game in his high school career.

Coach Cameron said that Garrett, who has been an offensive starter for three years, has "tremendous speed and the ability to pull and block—he knows the fine techniques of blocking."

ALL-LEAGUE CENTER
Deersted at the beginning of the season by an injured leg, John Mace of Wood River is described by Coach Wayne Williams as the type of boy everyone wants to coach.

The 215-pound senior was a key blocker on trap and up-the-middle plays. "I didn't realize his importance until he was out of the lineup," the coach noted.

QUARTERBACK WINNER
The coaches' quarterback selection is Mike Hudock of Wood River.

Despite missing the first three games of the grid season while healing a broken wrist, Hudock managed to score seven TDs in six games and to throw three TD passes, one for 60 yards.

Coach Wayne Williams said that the 184-pound senior was directly responsible for preventing East St. Louis, when the Oilers played them this season, "from getting the long TD. He ran down their backs whenever they broke into the open."

WINNING HALFBACKS
The second All-Conference team is Frank Holmes, who netted 327 yards with a 6.2 average per carry this season. Coach Yonkus described the 187-pound junior as "a truly great back—big enough to smash for that 'third and three' with speed and the balance of a wild-cat."

The only junior selected for this year's all-conference team, Holmes on eight occasions carried the ball for gains of over 40 yards. He scored seven TDs for the Maroons.

FULLBACK CHOICE
An area leader in total yards rushing with 1295 netted, James Robertson of East St. Louis was selected for the fullback slot.

The 152-pound senior set new flier records in rushing and scoring which may also be regional and state marks. He tallied 78 points and in four grid games ran 200 yards per game.

Lincoln Cagers Bow To Dunbar Quintet
Both Madison Dunbar junior and Alton's A and B cage teams won over Lincoln of Venice in play Tuesday at Dunbar.

Dunbar A won 23-16, with high point men Henry Dobbins and Randy Stewart each totaling eight points each.

Both Madison Dunbar junior and Alton's A and B cage teams won over Lincoln of Venice in play Tuesday at Dunbar.

Dunbar's next competition will take place at the O'Fallon Junior high tournament, where the squad will play Emge next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

United Fund Drive Leaders Ready To Start 'Mop-Up'

Mop-up operations to complete the Tri-Cities Area United Fund drive—now at 98% of the $365,000 goal—are to be outlined in detail Monday afternoon when the full campaign cabinet is to meet with Chairman Carl Mathias.

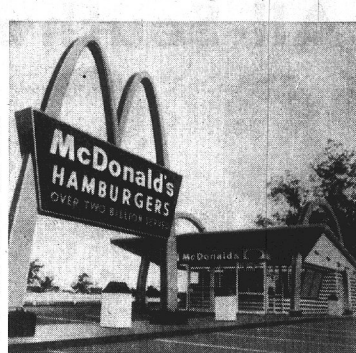

In announcing today the 98% mark with pledges totaling $359,606, Mathias noted that added funds from the Madison and Venice divisions, and even the top report from Irvin Slate's legal section of the Professional Division helped the continuing effort to reach the full quota.

Scattered returns also were received from other divisions. A breakdown of the campaign to date by divisions follows:

Industrial Firms — $131,947, 97.7%
Industrial Employees — $159,547, 99.7%
Commercial — $31,321, 92.1%
Professions — $242,105, 97.7%
Public Services — $14,834, 93.3%
Residential and Rural — $197,96.8%
Madison — $831, 95.8%
Venice — $2177, 96.7%
At the present time the total pledges are 2 1/2% higher than the amount raised last year when the campaign went over its goal.

Bartlyak Fails to Appear in Estate Case

State's Atty. Bartlyak failed to appear or be represented in the probate division of circuit court as ordered Wednesday in a hearing into the estate of the late William H. Becker, Collinsville, for which he had been appointed as attorney on a private basis.

The administrator of the estate, LeRoy John Becker of Villa Grove, testified that Bartlyak, a patient in Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, had not turned over the assets of the estate, as ordered by the court, by Nov. 28. The new attorney for the estate, Matthew Welch of Collinsville, testified before Associate Judge I. H. Streeter that an investigation of banks and savings and loan associations in Collinsville showed no deposits made in the name of the estate at any time. Particularly at issue were two checks totaling $5300 from the sales of estate properties, Welch advised.

He recommended that the same administrator of the estate be retained, and Judge Streeter took the request under advisement. The next step in the case will be to petition the court to have Bartlyak explain why he did not carry out the orders of the court. Bartlyak has been confined to the hospital since Oct. 1. Judge Streeter said the sheriff's officers served a summons on him.

Bi-State's Bus "Discount" Pass Proves Popular

Bi-State Transit officials have announced that sales of the new "Discount" weekly passes for the first week of issue exceeded their expectations.

The new pass was introduced by Bi-State primarily to serve the needs of senior citizens, shoppers and others whose normal travel requirements can be satisfied during the holiday season. The discount pass is good for unlimited riding from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., Mondays through Saturdays, and all day on Sundays and specified holidays. Also, on Sundays and holidays two children under 12 may ride free with an adult passenger. Users of the $2 passes are not subject to transfer charges nor to zone charges.

"The number of $2 passes sold for the first week far exceeds our original estimates," a Bi-State transit spokesman said. "This is certainly an indication of the attractiveness of this form of fare for certain classes of riders, including senior citizens and housewives. Also, judging from our experience with the regular weekly passes, there should be a steady increase in the number of purchasers in the weeks ahead."

"During the first week of issue of regular weekly passes last year, 14,700 were sold. This has gradually increased to 27,000 per week and there is no indication that a plateau of sales has been reached as yet."

"Our early estimates on the initial sale of the $2 pass was 10% of the regular passes, or about 2700. The actual amount sold, almost 4000, is about 15% of the regular passes. We are certainly pleased with this showing of the popularity of the new pass and we are hopeful that more and more people take advantage of the liberal riding privileges and convenience that it offers."

Autos Collide

An auto owned by Thomas Edward Lee, 2033 Bryan avenue, parked in the 2400 block of Madison, was struck in the rear by another driver by Helen to submit names of lawyers. Bartosiek told me, "Our 11-11 aldermen who repeatedly have opposed Mayor Parney will accept only Calvo."

"When the sewer program was first proposed," Sternberg continued, "There were only two aldermen opposed to it—Nann and Bartosiek. I'm scared that the responsibility rests with the 11. I think we've lost the project. It appears to be more of an opposition to the mayor than to the project."

Many hands went into the air to get the floor after Sternberg sat down. Alderman Thompson was first given the floor.

He said that he was certain Calvo would be embraced by the debate. "Mr. Calvo is a good citizen, a gentleman, a scholar and a competent attorney," Thompson commented, adding and finish it. Sternberg has gone in for character assassination.

Moorlien Disagrees Moorlien spoke up next saying that during the committee meetings he had never heard of any mention of support for Calvo by 11 aldermen. "If a majority of aldermen say Calvo, we should be in for character assassination."

Bartosiek was next. He accused Sternberg of making numerous misstatements. "Sternberg says he doesn't want to kill the project, then he aldermen say Calvo, we should be in for character assassination."

tries to start a fight. I recall he supported Calvo for the job of bond attorney for the sewage treatment plant.

"Never Said It" "I made no statement as to 11 men supporting the appointment. I said some of the board wanted to name him. I never said 11 men would cram this down the council's throat," Sternberg interrupted. "You did."

Mayor Parney rapped for order, and Bartosiek continued. "I said he could get a nine-vote support and never mentioned 11," Bartosiek said. Boyd took the floor and said he also disagreed with Sternberg's remarks.

"I don't understand this on moral conflict. Certainly we hired Mr. Calvo on the madhusuit suit. The mayor also used Calvo to mandamus the council the past. Calvo is an assistant attorney general, the attorney for the Granite City Steel Employees Credit Union and the United Steelworkers of America."

"If anyone is trying to blow this project, it's Sternberg. This is a good time to start a fight. The $8,000,000 bond issue was for character assassination."

Moorlien Disagrees Moorlien spoke up next saying that during the committee meetings he had never heard of any mention of support for Calvo by 11 aldermen. "If a majority of aldermen say Calvo, we should be in for character assassination."

go along. I said I'd go with the majority of the council, and I feel Calvo is a competent man. Taking the floor, Nann said he was entering the debate because his name was mentioned. "I'm not for an $8,000,000 bond issue. I said I'd go for a $1,900,000 issue. On Calvo, I opposed him for sewage treatment plant bond issue attorney."

Alderman Poulos then addressed the mayor. "You named the committee, why don't you speak?" "I will when I can," the mayor replied.

Fry asked Assistant City Attorney Norman Kinder, who was attending his first council session in his official capacity, if a resolution or ordinance had to be prepared for naming a bond attorney.

Only Contract Is Needed Kinder said only a contract would be needed. Fry then turned to Nann.

"Nann is against the $8,000,000 bond issue since $1,900,000 will take care of problems in his ward. You should have seen the water in homes in the Sixth Ward last weekend from the rain. The $8,000,000 bond issue would benefit the whole town, but he's against that."

Mayor Parney asked to relinquish his chair to Alderman Rutledge so he could speak on the issue. The vote was 9-0-2 against his request. Voting "no" were Nann, Rutledge, Basarsich and Fry.

Bartosiek called for the mayor to speak.

Mayor's Comments Parney first said that much time had been spent to get the $1,500,000 grant of federal tax funds for the city to carry out a portion of an overall sewer and drainage program. "People will be forced to carry out the entire program some day and will have to pay the full cost instead of half."

"We received the largest grant of any of 20 qualifying cities. Now we're trying to get the support of the people."

"I suggested five attorneys to the committee—Maurice Duley, Burton Bernard, William Beatty, Leo Konzen and Morris Chapman. I met with the committee and they said that only Calvo would be considered."

"I find I must have an attorney I can work with, and this gentleman I cannot work with. We have this $1,500,000 grant, and if you want to throw this money aside, it's up to the council."

Poulos asked Mayor Parney if he had personal reasons for opposing the selection. Mayor Parney replied, "Yes." The roll call vote was taken.

Roll call Vote Voting for naming Calvo were Alderman Nann, Whitmer, Basarsich, Bartosiek, Johnson, Boyd, Dallas, Moorlien, Fry, Robertson, Poulos and Green. Those opposing were Rutledge, Sternberg and Thompson.

After the meeting, the mayor said he was hopeful of saving the $13,500 special bond attorney fee by having one of the city's two attorneys do the job on regular salary. He said it is a matter of ethics, and that a decision is pending from the County Bar Association.

Commenting on his answer to Poulos on personal issues being involved, Parney said that remarks over remarks involving a sidewalk construction which the mayor opposed.

Rejection of the mayor's $299 expenses for November came early in the meeting, when Nann called for separation of the amount from the bill list, saying a more detailed breakdown should be given.

Demands Public Apology Nann's move came after he had demanded a public apology from the mayor.

Nann read his demand to the council, saying the mayor had made a remark about him in a public place in front of a group that included Alderman Fry and Nann. "I believe this is a new low in local politics. . . . At this time, mayor, I challenge you in public to prove your statement by giving the state's attorney any evidence you have against me. I will be happy to appear before a grand jury and answer any questions regarding your statement."

Nann continued, "Your statement cast a reflection on my character and my family. If you cannot prove your statement, I feel you were a public apology to us."

The mayor did not reply. It was only moments later the council adjourned.

Rutledge called for a vote, and Nann took the floor again.

Debate over expenses He said the amount was excessive, averaging $270 to $280 a month, while the former mayor's was around $200. He said that when $800 a year was set up for the mayor's expenses, the council did not mean it should be spent.

"This is supposed to be an economy administration, and I'm going to watch it close. He first said the amount should be cut to $200, and later commented the mayor should get $30, 'the same as the aldermen.'"

Mayor Parney told Nann his expenses were itemized, and Fry commented that he had heard rumors for the past year and a half that the mayor's expenses were excessive. "I don't know if it would come after the last time the township assessor's $200-a-month expense allowance was cut."

Basarsich remarked that he noted the assessor's expense allowance had been separated in any of the bills. "I don't know if it would come after the last time the township assessor's $200-a-month expense allowance was cut."

Supreme Court to Act on New Plea In Rail Tax Case

A new plea in which he charged that serious constitutional questions have been unanswered in previous rulings in the tax objection cases of 12 Madison county railroads was presented to the Illinois Supreme Court in Springfield yesterday by Burton C. Bernard, Granite City attorney representing 14 county school districts that are pressing the tax assessment issue.

The cases involve approximately $1,500,000 in protested tax bills for the 12 railroads for the years 1957 to 1962, most of the money representing school district funds. The Alton school district is the only one in the county not to be a party in the case.

The Madison county circuit court ruled against the railroads a year and a half ago, but the Illinois Supreme Court in Springfield yesterday by Burton C. Bernard, Granite City attorney representing 14 county school districts that are pressing the tax assessment issue.

The Madison county circuit court ruled against the railroads a year and a half ago, but the Illinois Supreme Court in Springfield yesterday by Burton C. Bernard, Granite City attorney representing 14 county school districts that are pressing the tax assessment issue.

The cases involve approximately $1,500,000 in protested tax bills for the 12 railroads for the years 1957 to 1962, most of the money representing school district funds. The Alton school district is the only one in the county not to be a party in the case.

MORE ABOUT Hospital

cellent programs as these, and that the biggest phase of the responsibility still is up to the community."

Lindsley said, "We hope our endorsement of the project will spur the community to carry out this project."

The hospital project is estimated to cost a total of $5,000,000 to $6,000,000, with about a third to be financed by a public subscription campaign.

Sister Mary Thomas, hospital administrator, said the grant figure was below expectations, and instead of a 30% grant, it had been reduced to 20%.

20-Year Plan

The hospital has plans prepared for a 20-year $5,000,000 expansion and modernization program. "The Lay Advisory Board of the hospital has heartily endorsed the program, along with the administration and staff of the hospital," Sister Thomas said.

The hospital's program calls for about 100 beds to be added, with the new wing designed for additional beds will eventually replace the structure along Madison avenue built in 1930. It will be razed.

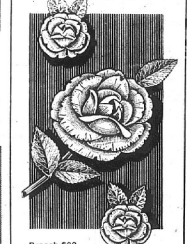

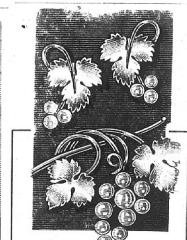

The new wing along Iowa street on hospital property, has a design for seven levels for central supply, housekeeping, service areas, emergency rooms, physical therapy and x-ray, surgical suites, obstetrical department and with the third, fourth and fifth floor for 50-bed medical units each.

Razing of the 1930 structure would call for replacement of the emergency department and service departments, as well as the operating rooms and obstetrics department and patient beds.

A reputation can't be built on the things you intend to do.

GCHS Football, Harrier Awards Given at Dinner

Over 450 parents, teachers, athletes and guests attended the annual GCHS fall sports award banquet held at the new high school cafeteria Wednesday night.

After the invocation by Rev. Paul R. Surbey, pastor of St. John United Church of Christ, those in attendance served themselves from tables heaped with food.

Following an introduction and "thank you" by City Treasurer E. R. "Pat" Rich, master of ceremonies, the annual Chris Marcovsky sophomore football award and Miss "G" (school spirit) award were presented to Roger Laws and Sharon Sizemore. Don Partney was named as most valuable back and Terry Yates as most valuable defensive player.

In presenting the awards, Lawrence McCauley, GCHS principal, said, "Roger epitomizes the type of athlete-student the Chris Marcovsky award is intended for—dedication to purpose in sports and student life. Sharon's same purpose of dedication qualifies her for the Miss 'G' award."

Iowa Coach Speaks
Guest speaker Ray Nagel, head football coach of the University of Iowa, told the audience and 38 football lettermen that development of a winning spirit supercedes the number of games won in a particular season.

"You develop a nucleus of winning spirit and attitude first, and then with the establishment of this philosophy games are automatically won."

Nagel summarized in a statement directed to the football players, "You will get much more out of football than you put into it."

He complimented the Warrior football coaching staff for instilling in former football Warrior John Evenden, now playing defensive tackle on the Iowa team, the spirit of winning.

Nagel said that Evenden, a sophomore, accepted the responsibility of filling a varsity position early in the season and is now Iowa's best defensive lineman.

After the address, letters were awarded to both cross-country and football Warriors.

Cross-Country Letters

Dick Harmon, cross-country coach, presented letters to the harriers and commended all for their performances this season. Lettermen are Michael Burris, Paul Hopper, Richard Hull, Bruce Jones, Mickie Kawala, Dave Lomax, Gary Oxford, Joe Pashea, Gus Schalkham, Mike Weiser and managers Howard Pierce and Jim Shepard. Schalkham, Lomax and Pashea were team tri-captains during the season.

Jim Morrison, Warrior football coach, presented letters to 38 football players and said this year's team "tried the hardest of any team he has coached" and in the end developed the all important consistency needed to be a winning team.

"You must remember this team came back, despite a losing streak, to nearly beat Southwestern Conference champion East St. Louis and upset second-place Belleville West. Talking about this season was more frustrating than playing it," he added.

Football Awards

Five players were nominated for 1967 team captain positions and it was decided, because of the large number, to hold another election later in 1967. Those nominated for team captains were Warrior linebackers John Himmert and Mike Dochwal, and three halfbacks, David Anderson, Ron Sheppard and Ronald Laws.

Those seated at the head table, introduced by Rich, included Acting Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis and Mrs. Davis, Acting Comptroller and Mrs. Victor Anderson, Athletic Director Richard Yates and Mrs. Yates, Mrs. McCauley, Mrs. Betty Morrison, Rev. Surbey and John "Bud" Tynes, Iowa backfield coach, who accompanied the guest speaker.

Also a guest at the dinner was Dave Long, defensive tackle for the St. Louis football Cardinals. A three-year football letterman at the University of Iowa, Long was the third-round draft choice of the National Football League club last year.

Members of the Warriors' 1966 Southwestern Conference championship team honored included Pete Spiroff, Karl Linhart, Bill Perrell, Clifford Bell, Ernest Hawkins, Gerald Patterson and Frank Kraus, principal of Coolidge junior high school.

Also introduced by McCauley, who coached the 1966 championship squad, was his former assistant coach, Glen Rice.

ing Tuesday developed from testimony received in the hearings and from documents evidence.

Among changes recommended by the Gateway council is one raising the sulphur limit of coal used for fuel from 1.45 to 2.25%.

The report said: "The 1.45 limitation in the original (Air Study) ordinance was based on information indicating adequate supplies of low sulphur coal to be available. Subsequent information indicates that 1.45 is not immediately available."

"We agree with the Interstate Air Pollution Study that it will require a 5-to-10 year period to achieve the sulphur reduction goal. We consider the 2.25% regulation as a first step in phased reduction of sulphur dioxide."

While the Air Study recommended specific regulations of particular matter from heating equipment, the coordinating council will recommend the adoption of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers' Guide, entitled "Recommended Guide for the Control of Dust Emission—Combustion for Industrial Heat Exchangers," approved June 15, 1966. The recommendations also will effect changes in the emission of settleable acids and alkaline substances to control large-size particles.

In a change of regulation 14 of the Air Study proposal, the Gateway recommendation changes the limit of sulphur dioxide emissions by industrial sources from 300 parts per million by volume to a limit of 500 ppm.

Reason for the change, the report said, is that present technology would not permit reduction of emissions to the 300 ppm figure. Emissions from new sources can, with present technology, attain the 500 ppm goal, the report added.

A change also was recommended in a regulation that originally provided the "head of the air pollution agency" could adopt special measures to limit emissions in areas of heavy industrial concentration.

The section was changed to read that the authority be the responsibility of the Air Pollution Board rather than the head of the agency.

Other changes suggested include those of regulations pertaining to control of odors in the ambient air, control of odors from processing of animal matter

New Mental Health District Drafts Budget, Tax Bills

The newly organized Madison County Mental Health Board is meeting in Edwardsville this afternoon with finance officials of the county board of supervisors to draft budget requirements and pave the way for its first county-wide tax extension.

The seven-man board appointed a week ago by County Board Chairman Harold Landolt and confirmed by the county board, organized yesterday afternoon and named J. J. Gramlich of Highland, a member of the county board, as chairman.

Other members include Edwin Reiske, Granite City; Harry R. Johnson, Madison; Jerry L. Staten, Godfrey; Dr. Edward Buzan, Alton; Mrs. Stephen B. Kennedy, Alton; and H. U. Landon, Edwardsville.

The board will administer the Madison County Mental Health district established by referendum vote in the Nov. 8 election. The referendum also authorized assessed valuation, although proponents of the program maintain only a small part of this will be extended.

Propose Separate Budgets
Three separate budget proposals were to be presented to the county board's finance committee this afternoon, one each for the mentally retarded clinic, the mental health clinic, both at Alton, and the Quad-City mental health clinic.

Reiske told the Press-Record the budget requirements for all three units will be lumped for tax extension purposes under a single tax rate. When the money is collected, he pointed out, it will be distributed proportionately to the three units on the basis of their approved budget figures.

Reiske also pointed out that the Mental Health District will not realize tax income until next summer, probably in July, and therefore necessarily must continue operations with state grants, United Fund allotments and fee income as it has in the past.

He said fees, representing money received from persons financially able to pay for part of the services received at the clinics, have been totaling around $5000 a year.

Reiske said continuation of the fee system, even after tax funds become available, has been discussed by board members. Definite decision on the matter will be made after further discussion, he said.

Wortman Hangout in Sales Tax Troubles

The Paddock Catering Co. of East St. Louis, reputed hangout for Frank "Buster" Wortman and his associates, allegedly owes the state of Illinois $6269 in sales tax, and the night club's operators may be called before the Illinois Liquor Control Commission early next year in connection with the debt.

The night club and restaurant reportedly failed to file sales tax returns for July and August this year and also are reported to have violated an agreement for installment payments on the delinquent $6269 debts. Operators of the club face suspension or revocation of the license because of the delinquency it was reported by officials of the Illinois Revenue Department.

Arthur J. Berne, long-time associate of Wortman, holds the East St. Louis retail liquor license for the establishment, and state records show the Paddock

Three Local Marines Are Recruit Grads

Three local Marines were graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps recruit depot at San Diego, Calif.

They are Pvt. Dennis J. Moniz, son of Mrs. Margaret K. McMichael, 2313 Grand avenue; Pvt. Kenneth W. Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes, 1428 Norwood drive, and Pvt. Richard J. Giebe, son of Mrs. Doris Giebe, 2108 East 24th street.

Catering Co. was incorporated in January, 1958. Sam Magin, lieutenant and a Wortman lieutenant, is listed as one of the four original incorporators. Wortman was acquired by a jury in U.S. district court last January of charges he evaded payment of more than $50,000 in income taxes.

Don't waste time criticizing conditions—try to improve them. Men go wrong because they aren't satisfied where they are.

Leave things to chance—and have the less chance you have.

Fraudorff Urges Higher Budget For New Sheriff

Barney Fraudorff, outgoing sheriff of Madison county, called upon the Madison county board of supervisors and its finance committee today to "pay attention to the newly-elected sheriff" and provide him with enough money "to run his office efficiently."

Fraudorff, whose term of office ends next Monday when George Masco, former county treasurer who was elected sheriff Nov. 8, assumes his duties, suggested the county board provide funds for increased manpower in the sheriff's office and for installation of a teletype system to speed up communications between law enforcement agencies throughout the area.

In a statement today, Fraudorff said "there is a great demand in the unincorporated areas of Madison county for the protection of lives and property of the more than 75,000 inhabitants that live in an area 30 miles across. We have no traffic control in this area and there are many bad spots where children have to cross to get to and from school. There are other areas where hot-rodgers try out their cars and we have no control over this."

Urges Full-Time Patrols
"The need exists," Fraudorff continued, "for a 24-hour patrol of all county areas as crimes are committed during all hours of the day as shown by more than 1000 burglaries a year reported by homeowners and businesses. We also have more murders, robberies, rapes, stolen cars, robberies, etc., now being reported, and more patrols and protection is needed because it may get out of hand if proper precautions are not taken immediately."

"There is a great demand for protection in all sections of the county, and there is a skeleton force of 15 men to patrol the highways and investigate these crimes."

Fraudorff suggested the installation of teletype equipment will "contribute greatly to the efficiency of the sheriff's office and also will contribute greatly to other localities who also subscribe." He said such a system would more closely knit together the law enforcement agencies throughout the county and speed up checking on licenses, names and other data essential to criminal investigation.

A built-up desire to get even has been many a man's downfall.

Nursing Care Studied By Cadette Girl Scouts

Nursing procedures and information pertinent to home nursing care were described by Sister M. Philomena, head nurse of the third floor surgical unit at St. Elizabeth Hospital last week for Cadette Troop 231 of the First United Presbyterian Church.

Troop members assembled at the hospital for the second of three sessions, during which instruction and practical demonstrations are provided by hospital staff members. The classes cover different facets of nursing care, part of the requirements necessary to earn the Girl Scout home nursing badge.

In last week's session, Sister Philomena demonstrated the correct procedure for counting pulse beats and respiration, reading a thermometer and applying moist hot compresses. She showed how to rearrange bedroom furniture to provide easier care for a patient ill at home.

Mrs. Vee Thorne is leader, with Miss Linda Beane as assistant leader. The final session will be held Dec. 14 at the hospital, with Mrs. Catherine Pisel, director of volunteers, in charge.

American Steel 25-Year Club to Enroll 58 New Members

Twenty-four Quad-Cityans are among the 58 new members who will be enrolled next Tuesday in the 25-Year Club of American Steel Foundries. The initiation will take place at the club's 23rd annual meeting and banquet to be held in the Madison Memorial Center, Seventh street and Lee avenue.

A. P. Steinhilber, works manager, will present engraved watches to the new members, whose enrollment will increase the club's total membership to 423, including 172 honorary members. Seventeen club members died within the past 12 months.

Organized in 1944 for the purpose of promoting good fellowship among employees with long service at the local plant, the 25-Year Club is presently headed by Granite City Fourth Ward Alderman Paul E. Rutledge as president, and Edward F. Devany, 1018 Third street, Venice, as vice-president. Alderman Rutledge will preside at Tuesday's meeting.

Nine Burglaries, Thefts Reported in GC Area Monday

Nine cases of thefts and burglaries were reported Monday to Granite City police and the Madison county sheriff's office. Clyde Walker, 229 State street, reported that while he was away on a three-week vacation, someone forced their way into his home and ransacked the entire house. It was undetermined what was missing.

A 1965 convertible auto stolen from Richard Gibbs, 2231 Dewey avenue, was found stripped by state police on old Route 67 near some radio towers. The engine, radiator, transmission and spare tire were missing.

Marshall school was broken into during the Thanksgiving holidays by smashing a small glass pane out of an east door. A filing cabinet was forced open and several drawers were ransacked but nothing was missing.

A one-horsepower gasoline engine was taken from a construction trailer owned by Baldwin, Ehret, Hill, Inc., St. Louis, and tools belonging to employees were stolen from a bucket truck owned by the Air Products Co., 22nd and Monroe streets, during the weekend of Nov. 19. The material was valued at about $100.

Added Traffic Controls Proposed by City

Ordinances are to be prepared for traffic controls recommended to the Granite City Council Monday night by the Traffic Commission headed by Dale Arnette. Included are yield and stop signs, no-parking zones and a two-way designation for Maple street. Repeal of a no-parking zone in the 2700 block of Edwards street was proposed by Alderman Parnley.

Alderman Whitmer, chairman of the council's traffic committee, said the ordinances should be ready for next week's meeting.

The no-parking zones are to be for the north side of 23rd street between Washington and Lee avenues and on both sides along 18th street between Cleveland and Neddinghaus avenues. Arnette pointed out both street areas are too narrow for parking on both sides and for two-way traffic.

Maple street now is wide enough for two-way traffic with a recent improvement, and the one-way restriction is to be lifted. A stop sign will be placed at the intersection with Neddinghaus avenue.

"The commission is recommending a stop sign on Willow avenue at Edgewood drive to be for the north side of 23rd open Edgewood to through traffic as a result of traffic controls. Yield signs are proposed on Joy avenue at Myrtle avenue, and on Cedar avenue at Myrtle and on Rodgers avenue at Carlson.

Alderman Parnley submitted a petition with 183 signatures calling for repeal of the ordinance establishing a no-parking zone along the east side of the 2700 block of Edwards street. He pointed out the zone extends in front of Emmitt's Market. A former Sixth Ward alderman, Charles Segars, was in the audience and thanked the aldermen for giving consideration to the grocer.

2 Local Men Serving With Honored Unit

Two Quad-City servicemen who are members of the 39th Air Division of the Air Defense Command were cited this week for providing essential support to help the organization win the coveted Smith Trophy as the best U. S. Air Force.

Presentation of the trophy was made at Sioux City, Ia., headquarters for the 23 widely-scattered divisional units. Divisional members include Doctor (Capt.) Donald L. Coleman, son of Dr. Leo M. Coleman, 2315 Grand avenue, and Mrs. Charlotte Grondona of Oakland, Calif., and Airman First Class Richard A. Byrd, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Byrd, 1547 Collinsville avenue, Madison.

Stationed at Richards-Gebaur AFB, Mo., as chief of aeromedical services, Dr. Coleman is married to the former Sue Ann Young of Granite City. He is a graduate of Granite City high school and received his BS degree from St. Louis University and medical degree in 1962 from the University of Illinois College of Medicine.

Airman Byrd, a Madison high school graduate, is based at Chandler Air Force Station, Minn., as a radar repairman. His wife, Shirley, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lebanoski, 3000 Circle drive.

The division secured the Smith Trophy for displaying the best defensive combat capability during the past year by scoring 6950 of a possible 7000 points. One phase of competition included a computer-simulated enemy air attack, testing the division's operational readiness to detect, identify and, if unfriendly, intercept and destroy approaching aircraft.

Birthdays Serve as Reminders of History

JOHN W. ALLEN

Southern Illinois University
Time has moved along at what seems to have been an ever increasing rate. It has reached an accumulated total of 78.

Glancing back over these accumulated years, many happenings and incidents naturally are recalled. In fact the years have been crowded with them.

After so long a time has passed, perhaps it is permissible to pause and muse a bit. The resulting conclusion is the past 78 years compare in interesting and significant happenings very favorably with almost any other like period in recorded history.

Some of the significant events and personalities that have come along are briefly noted here.

Radio, now an everyday affair, has come along during the period. At first we bought the radio and wired our own sets. The first radio the writer heard was the one he built. It was three years before the ready-made commercial sets were better. Now it's television, in full color.

Telephones likewise have come into general use during a lifetime. The first telephone that came to the village of Texas City, six miles from Eldorado, in the very early 1890s, caused much discussion. Those not knowing tried to explain its workings.

"The Wire is Hollow"
One explanation offered was, "the wire is hollow." This explanation was disputed by one observer who insisted that he had seen the wire cut across and there was no hole. After some time he agreed that the thing worked, but just how remained much in doubt.

The Australian ballot came to Rector township in the November election of 1882 and was explained by a diagram drawn on a board at the end of the log house near which the wash tubs, wooden tubs and washboard were on a sheltered bench.

In this same interval of years the scourge of yellow fever was understood and brought under control. Likewise were malaria and Asiatic cholera. Labor came more into its own and the public's interest and sympathies became greater. This was in the face of an attitude very clearly expressed by one industrialist in the following words—"The right of the laboring man will be protected, not by the labor agitator but by the Christian men to whom God in his infinite wisdom has given control of the property interests of the country."

The Panama Canal, linking the Atlantic and the Pacific, came in these years that one writer calls the good years. The unsinkable Titanic struck an iceberg and promptly sank, claiming its hundreds of victims.

The writings of Tarbell, Markham and Steffens directed attention toward the common man. Henry Ford set about making it possible for the working man to own an automobile. The X-ray came into use. The writer, then an SNU student, helped W. B. Davis, teacher of physics, set up the first set on campus in the tower of Altgeld Hall. Woodrow Wilson was voicing disapproval of child labor and commencing upon the use of automobiles.

1st Flight, Eskimo Pies
On Oct. 20, 1903, the Wright brothers made the first controlled power flight near Kitty Hawk.

The Panama Canal, linking the Atlantic and the Pacific, came in these years that one writer calls the good years. The unsinkable Titanic struck an iceberg and promptly sank, claiming its hundreds of victims.

Jack London was writing his stories and strapping those that publishers returned on a clothes line in his basement. He later took them off the line to send out when publishers began to clamor for more. It was partly by this practice that he won the reputation as a prolific writer.

Heywood was brought to trial in Idaho for murdering the governor. He was defended by Clarence Darrow and prosecuted by William Jennings Bryan. The Panama Canal, linking the Atlantic and the Pacific, came in these years that one writer calls the good years. The unsinkable Titanic struck an iceberg and promptly sank, claiming its hundreds of victims.

horse races at county fairs. People were singing "When You Were a Tulip," "In the Good Old Summer Time," and Charles I. Guiteau, my name I'll not deny!" was still sung by a few.

Theodore Roosevelt was acting out his dictum—"Speak softly and carry a big stick." Edwin Markham's poem, "The Man with a Hoe," was being quoted. San Francisco, practically destroyed by earthquake and fire, was rebuilt quickly. The steamer, Eastland, turned over at the pier in Chicago and carried hundreds to their deaths. The Iroquois Theater in Chicago burned and added other hundreds.

Dewey's Laurels
Dewey, Sampson, and Schley were adding to the laurels of our Navy. Lieutenant Batson was capturing Aquinaldo with the fleet that he gave to the SINU museum.

An occasional immigrant wagon moved over the roadways going toward a vanishing west. A few are remembered drawn by oxen with livestock in tow and barnyard fowls in coops. Yes, and with some hungry-looking rounds lazily following under the rear of the wagon.

Railmaking had not ended on many a farm. Log houses and barns were still being built. Logs were still being rolled. Brush arborers were used for holding "protected" meetings and every two miles or so there was a country school where the literary society met and where debates, ciphering matches and spelling bees were held.

Top buggies, drawn by two horses, struggled through the almost impassable gumbo roads of Rector bottom.

Those fortunate enough to have lived through those days will not soon forget them. What will another 79 years bring? Will as many other significant changes come?

Madison County Farm Bureau Holds Election, Hears Report

Auto Strikes Engine

An auto driven by Douglas B. Jones, Rural Route One, collided with an Illinois Terminal Railroad locomotive operated by engineer Robert Allison of Moro at 11:40 p.m. Monday at the Edwardsville road crossing. Jones was charged with disobeying railroad signals and was summoned for a hearing by Dec. 14. Charles C. Losch, East Alton,

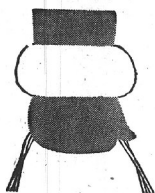

Directors of the Madison County Farm Bureau have named as president Harold Gindler of Rural Route One, Collinsville, following the bureau's 48th annual meeting in Edwardsville. The new executive, who succeeds Harold Heepke of Edwardsville, has served as board secretary for 12 years. Other officers elected were vice-president; Marvin Stille, Alhambra, secretary, and Fremont Schoeck, St. Jacob, treasurer. Executive committee members include Heepke, Robert Kotler, Godfrey; Walter Bohn, Collinsville; Waldo Keilbach, Highland, and Rudy Kuttin, New Douglas. In his farewell report, Heepke emphasized the responsibility of each farm bureau member to see that agriculture gets its fair share of the consumer dollar. "Especially with the decline in farm people each year," Heepke said, "we must set up the teamwork it takes to make agriculture free and prosperous and leave a better place for future generations to live as did our forefathers." Heepke, who has been bureau president for three years, noted that directors recently voted to retire the balance of debt on the farm bureau building, 900 Hillsboro avenue, Edwardsville. The amount still owed, $12,854, was scheduled to be paid today. Income and expenses listed by the county bureau for the year ending Sept. 30 showed a total of $97,261, including $83,455 membership dues; $344 interest and dividends; $11,393 rent income; $19,287, insurance compensation; $2272, soil testing income, and $507 in commercial trading and other income. Expenses totaling $83,040, listed $18,474, general meetings, travel and salaries; $21,764, buildings; $7000, office; $4029, publicity; $4930, activities; $9335, extension contributions; $15,900, insurance department, and $1695, soil testing department. Total liabilities and net worth of the bureau was reported as $229,748.

Madison School Entered
 The Louis Baer school was entered during the weekend, apparently by children who ransacked desks in several rooms and took about 50 cents in change from a teacher's desk. Kenneth Williams, principal, told Madison police entry apparently was made through gymnasium doors that has a faulty lock. A bag of crayons, pencils and other school items were left behind.

Chief's Retirement Letter is 'Rejected' by City Council

Police Chief Raymond Willaredt, did not change his mind and plans to retire from the department Jan. 1 despite a 110-5 vote by the council Monday night rejecting his letter of retirement.

Mayor Partney told the Press-Record he was not quite ready to name a successor to the post, but did indicate there were eligible men on the department.

He added that he had been talking to Willaredt over the weekend, and would not stand in the way of the chief wanting to improve his position with a post in office of newly-elected Sheriff George Musso.

With the council's rejection of the retirement, the mayor joined in the spirit of the good natured praise of Chief Willaredt, commenting, "I don't know what to do in this case."

Several aldermen praised the 24½ years service on the department by Willaredt, who has been chief for the past 8½ years. First to speak was Mayor Whitmer, chairman of the Police committee.

Dept. Rated 'Class A'

"Under Chief Willaredt's guidance, the Granite City police department is a Class A department in the eyes of the state's attorney's office, other county officers, the state police district and Federal Bureau of Investigation."

"I've been told," Whitmer continued, "this department has the best prepared cases before the grand jury and in court. The city is losing one good conscientious worker, and if there was any way I could get him to stay, I'd do it."

Alderman Johnson in remarking that the chief had done an excellent job, added that the public would want to know why he is leaving.

Mayor Partney stated that in his talks with the chief it was brought out that Willaredt has a chance for financial advancement with the retirement. "We shouldn't stand in his way. My sentiments are the same as yours. He has done a fine job."

Voting not to accept the letter of retirement were Aldermen Nunn, Rutledge, Basarich, Johnson, Boyd, Dallas, Norvick, Parmley, Robertson, Poulos and Green. Voting to accept were Whitmer, Bartosik, Sternberg, Thompson and Fry.

After the roll call, Chief Willaredt thanked the council.

At the start of Monday night, Mayor Partney introduced the newly-appointed assistant city attorney, Norman Kinder of the Chapman law firm, who was attending his first council meeting as legal adviser. City Attorney Allen was not present.

Council members voted down 10-6 an ordinance granting a 4% pay increase to the city police. The increase had been placed on first reading last week in compliance with a request from the Painters' Union that the city employee be given the same consideration as city street department employees.

No mention was made of pay increases for 21 employees at the city hall. Their $11-$24 monthly pay increase ordinance was voted down by the mayor, who stated he felt the council's Personnel committee recommendation for a 4% flat proposal was more in line with other raises and the city's budget.

2 Local Sailors Served With Spacecraft Team

Machinist's Mate Second Class William Wagner, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Montgomery of 135 West Second street and Fireman John Petras, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Petras of 702 Twenty-sixth street, are crew members aboard the guided missile destroyer USS Joseph Strauss, which was a unit of Task Force 130. The Department of Defense Manned Spacecraft Pacific Recovery Force.

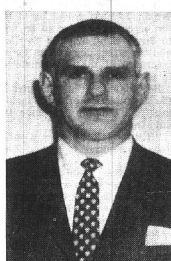

The Task Force was stationed at points across the Pacific in support of the Gemini GTA-12 project. Although the four-day manned mission splashed down in the Atlantic, the Strauss stood by to recover both spacecraft and astronauts if a Pacific landing was necessary.

Mayor Partney stated that in his talks with the chief it was brought out that Willaredt has a chance for financial advancement with the retirement. "We shouldn't stand in his way. My sentiments are the same as yours. He has done a fine job."

Voting not to accept the letter of retirement were Aldermen Nunn, Rutledge, Basarich, Johnson, Boyd, Dallas, Norvick, Parmley, Robertson, Poulos and Green. Voting to accept were Whitmer, Bartosik, Sternberg, Thompson and Fry.

RAYMOND WILLAREDT

Chief Willaredt Looks Forward to Retirement

Granite City Police Chief Raymond Willaredt is looking forward with apparent pleasure to more relaxing duties when his retirement starts Jan. 1.

Chief Willaredt, who announced plans to retire on Monday will have served 24½ years with the Granite City department, including the last 8½ years as chief.

He plans to accept a position on the staff of Madison county Sheriff George Musso where his responsibilities will not be as great. His pension and county salary will comfortably provide for his family.

Chief Willaredt was employed with Granite City Steel Co. when he first was appointed to the department on July 1, 1942.

His position as a policeman was interrupted by 2½ years of Army service during world war II. He was assigned to the European Theater of Operations and was awarded the silver and bronze stars for action in the Battle of the Bulge.

Two Quick Promotions

He was promoted to the rank of lieutenant on Dec. 1, 1950, and became assistant police chief on Jan. 1, 1951.

Many events which occurred during his service with the department are coming to mind this week, he said.

The case which appeared first was the armed robbery at J. J. Cobsmeyer's tavern about 10 years ago, the subsequent investigation which led to the arrest of convict Marvin Dale Berry and associates and the battle in the courts to win a conviction.

Associations Listed

Chief Willaredt is a member of the Illinois Police Association, the Police Benevolent & Protective Association, a life member of the Madison County Police Association, Illinois Chief of Police Association of which he is current sergeant-at-arms and member of the executive board, the Elks and Moose lodges, the American Legion and the Quad-City Safety Council.

He and his wife have three children, a son who is in the service in Vietnam, and two daughters, one of whom is married. The other is a high school sophomore.

The retirement will provide more time for more pleasant activities. "Fishing is my hobby, and I like to bowl," he said.

WILD BOAR, weighing approximately 400 pounds, was the successful kill of T/Sgt. William H. Murphy, formerly of Granite City, who shot the animal recently in Turkey. A member of the U. S. Air Force Intelligence Service, the serviceman is a son of James A. Murphy, 308 Grand avenue.

T/Sgt. Wm. Murphy Kills Wild Boar in Turkey

T/Sgt. William H. Murphy, 1708 Grand avenue, the serviceman said the animal was good eating, commenting, "There was taken him on assignments to many corners of the world, experienced a successful boar-hunting trip last month in the forest area of Turkey."

T/Sgt. Murphy, who has been stationed in Turkey about three months, shot a vicious wild boar, weighing more than 400 pounds with tusks several inches in length in November. In a note to his father, James A. Murphy, he wrote:

Kiwanis See Film On Canadian Cities

Contrasting scenes of old-world charm, blended with modern architecture as found in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, were toured via film strip Monday evening by members of the Granite City Kiwanis Club, who attended a dinner meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Robert Lombardi presented the program and narrated the travelogue. Many of the sequences showed well-planned recreational and shopping areas, industrial sites designed to blend with suburban surroundings and various entertainment centers and restaurant facilities.

Peter F. Jellen, club president, conducted the business session. Plans were made for a "Ladies' Night" on Monday, Dec. 19, with Melvin Gillie appointed to arrange the dinner and annual Christmas program.

Guests introduced at the meeting, included Edward Uherick of the First Granite City National Bank and Charles Kessel of Alton, who has a 34-year perfect attendance record in the Kiwanis international organization.

Dr. Ray Roberts To Be Baptist 'M' Night Speaker

Dr. Ray E. Roberts, executive secretary of the State Convention of Southern Baptists of Ohio, will be guest speaker Monday evening at the Madison County "M" night service to be held at 7:30 at Calvary Baptist Church, 3000 Washington avenue.

Rev. Roberts, an evangelistic preacher, has participated in campaigns in most of the states, including Alaska.

At the Dec. 5 "M" night service Dr. Roberts will speak to the adults at Calvary Church with the primary, beginner and nursery departments meeting in the educational building.

The youth and juniors will meet at Third Baptist Church, 268 street and Grand avenue, where the youth group will hear Rev. Richard Belcher of the Washington Park Baptist Church, East St. Louis.

The juniors are to be addressed by the Rev. Vernon Covington of Granite City on "Gospel Chemistry" and a film will be shown. The program is under the direction of the Associational Union director, Rev. Richard Dillender of the Maryville Baptist Church. Rev. William Richardson is Superintendent of Missions.

DR. RAY E. ROBERTS

Approximately 1500 persons are expected to attend the meeting to which the public is invited.

Pvt. Walker Completes Communication Course

International Fair Week Set at U. of I.

Gov. Otto Kerner has proclaimed Friday through Sunday of next week to be International Week in Illinois in recognition of the International Fair to be held on the University of Illinois campus at Urbana.

Forty-one U. of I. students are members of the Illinois Union student activities executive committee that is responsible for the coordination of the fair.

Among them are Kathleen A. Bravé, Rural Route One, import bazaar committee, and Pam McCollum, 2919 Richmond avenue, exhibits committee.

A Latin American Capoechana club will be held Friday and Saturday and the fair will be held Dec. 9 and 10 in the Illinois Union.

About 75 countries will be represented in the fair, with activities to include entertainment provided by foreign students, exhibits to represent the cultures of the lands participating, foreign foods, an American exhibit, "Shorttime USA," an import bazaar, a continental cafe and a tea house.

Plane Noses Over in Landing, Pilot Unhurt

A light plane nosed over in soft mud while making a landing in an open field near Route 157, three miles south of Edwardsville at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, state police reported.

John L. Milton, 44, of Edwardsville, the pilot, escaped injury. He was alone. Prior arrangements had been made to use the field. The landing was near Sunset Hill Cemetery.

Expanded Redistricting Committee Stalled

An expanded seven-member committee for redistricting the city's eight wards prior to next April's city election was named Monday night by Mayor Partney, but one member, Second Ward Alderman Bartosik, declined, saying he was being kept too busy with the Special Sewer and the City Building committees.

The committee has the task of reworking the wards to equalize populations. At the present time, only two wards, the Sixth and Eighth, are north and east of Nantecook road, and the Sixth Ward extends into the East Grant area, including heavily-populated Kirkpatrick Homes.

Also named to the committee were Aldermen Dallas of the First Ward, Boyd of the Third Ward, Rutledge of the Fourth Ward, Partney of the Sixth Ward, Sternberg of the Seventh Ward and Johnson of the Eighth Ward.

Replacement Next Week

Mayor Partney said he would replace Bartosik at next week's meeting. Partney said that in compliance with the council's wishes stated last week, he endeavored to get a committee member from each of the wards that may be involved in boundary changes. The Fifth Ward was not included.

Alderman Rutledge, who has served as chairman of the special committee, has pointed out the difficulties in setting boundaries with so many aldermen living close to each other in the older sections of town.

He commented Monday night that he hoped Bartosik would reconsider his refusal to be on the committee so that a meeting could be arranged for this week to get the work started.

Old Cemeteries

In miscellaneous business, Alderman Johnson called for a letter of commendation to be sent to Street Supt. William Warfield and the street department for its clearance of the old cemeteries in East Granite.

He pointed out the minutes of the last meeting error in including City Building Inspector Orville Delcour.

"Has the letter been sent yet?" Johnson inquired of Mayor Partney.

The mayor replied that since the grading work was not completed, he had not yet sent the letter. Alderman Moerlein said he had received a complaint from the daughter of a man buried there, objecting to relocation of the tombstone.

Street Supt. Warfield told the Press-Record he figured 588 manholes on the job to date, but added that he did not know exactly when it would be finished. Warfield said he is trying to continue an alley clean up and currently is working in the vicinity of Wilson Park.

Special Projects

I'm doing this whenever men are available, but there are many tasks such as tree cutting and trimming and street cleaning as well as street patching and special jobs, such as building a temporary roadway for 510 feet to extend Maryville road from the concrete pavement at new Parkway school to Stratford lane and a slag sidewalk along Maryville road at new Worthen Park adjacent to the school.

Received and placed on file was a letter from Thomas Austin, president of Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Local 7-683, stating that the union was well pleased with the sale of the firm to Miles Laboratories, Inc., last October.

"Both sides learned lessons in the strike of 1965," Austin said, adding that improved labor-management conditions are expected with the new firm.

Joseph P. Dugan, 56, Dies; Ill 3 Months

Joseph P. Dugan, 56, of 13694 Edwardsville road, died at 11:59 p.m. Monday in Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, where he had been a patient for 18 days. He had been ill three months. Death was attributed to a liver ailment.

Mr. Dugan was born in East St. Louis and had been a resident of Granite City for 46 years. He had been employed as a laborer at Alton State Hospital for the past seven years. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Edwin (Doris Lee) Wortmann of St. Louis; three sisters, Mrs. William (Victoria) DuBay, Mrs. John (Mamie) DeHart and Mrs. Emmett (Helen) Patterson, all of Granite City, and two grandchildren.

Army Engineer Courses For Two Local GIs

Army Privates Gleason C. Knox Jr., 18, and Kenneth F. Hubert, 21, of Granite City, have completed an engineer assistant course at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. During the eight-week course, they were trained to operate and maintain air compressors, engines, crane shovels and tractors.

Pvt. Knox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gleason L. Knox, 2445 Edwards street, and Pvt. Hubert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hubert, 1908 Johnson road. His wife, Janice, lives in the 3200 block of Mockingbird lane.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Reinvesting Dividends Helpful

By Thomas E. O'Hara
National Association of Investment Clubs

Q. Recently in your column you mentioned a mutual fund that almost doubled in value between 1954 and 1964, paying $397.10 in dividends in addition. Will you please give me the name of that fund?

A. I am interested in starting an educational fund for my three grandchildren, now three and four years old. Also, could I have some of my 1000 shares of American Telephone and Telegraph which I transferred to them, and what would be the cost?

A. It is not my policy to recommend specific funds. However, if you will check Arthur Wiesenberger's "Investment Companies" in your local library, or consult "Forbes Magazine" for Aug. 15, 1966, you will find a comparison of the performance of all major investment companies.

I might point out that it was not unusual for a stock—whether that of a mutual fund or an individual company—to double in value between 1954 and 1964. In fact, A.T. & T. doubled in value in that time, while paying out considerably more in dividends than most mutual funds.

Many stocks multiplied by three or four in that period.

Transferring the stock to your grandchildren would be a very simple procedure and is quite inexpensive. Any broker can handle it for you. Your only expense is likely to be the $2.50 or thereabouts per certificate handling charge by the transfer agent.

Q. Two years ago we started making monthly payments into an investment fund. We really don't understand it. Our last record shows the following: $1440 paid in, $3388 reinvested, 186.41 total number of shares. The value of these shares if we sold them is $600.

We understand that you have to stay with a fund for three years before you can realize anything, but do you think ours is a good investment?

A. I do not have a detailed description of the plan under which the shares are sold, but you apparently have what is called a "front-load" contractual arrangement.

Under such a plan, unless you carry through until completion date, which in this case is 12½ years, a high percentage of your payments go toward commissions. In later years, virtually all you pay in goes into your investment account.

You apparently are reinvesting your dividends each quarter rather than receiving cash. This type of reinvesting is good since it puts the principle of dollar cost averaging to work for you. The last 10 years you have invested in your fund, with income reinvested, would have grown to this point. This is good but not spectacular performance.

It's easy to start an investment club. The National Association of Investment Clubs has literature that smooths the way. For a free copy of the booklet, "An Educational Investment Plan for You," write to T. E. O'Hara, NAIC, Dept. S, Box 1036, Detroit, Mich., 48231.

Completion of Mammoth Ice Rink,
Recreation Center Eagerly Awaited

It is a little easier to believe some of the startling statistics and dimensions of the new Wilson Park ice skating rink and recreation center now that it is taking tangible form.

While designed to create a visual effect of unity and grace, the center undeniably will also convey an accurate impression of majestic size and spaciousness.

The 115x205-foot pavilion, together with an enclosed building, will provide over 28,000 square feet of floor space. Its unique roof will vary in height from 15 feet at the sides to 60 feet in the center.

It will be able to accommodate gatherings of 3500 or more persons, with skating room for 700 to 900 at one time. Refrigerator piping and equipment will cover an area of 16,000 square feet.

Astronomical quantities of concrete and steel will be used, but the overall appearance will be dominated by wood, blending well with the rustic natural setting. A vast staff of workmen will have to be assembled on the day next summer when the high-strength concrete floor is poured.

Built to last but intended as a living facility rather than a beautiful but non-functional monument, the rink-recreation center is expected to be a scene of busy activity nearly every day of the year, serving all age groups and adapting to virtually any type of usage.

Rather than a decaying Roman Colosseum providing a reminder of the past, the Granite City park district soon will have a heroic-size structure emphasizing the present and the future. The completion date is being eagerly awaited by thousands of local families.

Soundly-Based Expansion
Of Mental Health Services

Appointment of a seven-member mental health board to advise the Madison County Board of Supervisors will aid the supervisors in determining realistic yearly budgetary needs for the new program approved by voters Nov. 8.

Both local members, Edwin F. Reiske and Harry R. Johnson, have indicated a comparatively conservative approach to the assignment. They are both interested in helping a substantially larger number of people avoid disabling emotional illness, but also are intent on securing that new and expanded services are soundly planned.

Judging by the appointments, advance estimates of only one percent of the authorized ten-cent tax will be used in the foreseeable future may well prove to be correct.

New County Program Intended to Provide Comprehensive Services to Retarded and Mentally Ill, Retaining More in Productive Roles

(Citizens Committee for Comprehensive Mental Health Services in Madison County)

Using the latest population estimates, Madison County is estimated that over 30,000 persons in the county will need help with mental health problems sometime during their lives. Many persons, estimated to be one out of 10, will suffer from mental illness with varying degrees of severity during their lifetime.

Often the family physician can truly care for many of the mental health problems of his patients. Other emotional or personality problems must often require extensive diagnostic testing and treatment by one or more persons using a team approach. Madison county presently has two mental health centers, one in Granite City and one in Alton, with the necessary staff to provide both diagnostic testing and treatment.

Legislation, Referendum

House Bill 708 is the Illinois legislation which enables counties and communities to annually levy up to a maximum of 10 cents per $100 of assessed valuation for local mental health services. Madison county voters approved such a tax Nov. 8.

Only two cents per $100 assessed valuation will actually be needed for comprehensive mental health services in Madison county, since the availability of a local mental health center will make it possible to participate in both state and federal programs with state and federal funds making up 75% of the total budgetary needs.

Comprehensive mental health services have often been termed the "crown jewel" of a community. Save by Spending

The reason is because mental illness affects families which, in turn, can be extremely expensive to the public in general.

For example, if a mother of an emotionally disturbed child, living with a husband, were

High Injury Rate Here Focuses Attention on Knowledge of First-Aid

If we saw a person who was badly hurt or in shock, and there was no one else around, would we be able to do the things necessary to help him survive? A professional help could be obtained?

Most of us answer "No." The National Research Council says in charging neglect of a major problem—the toll of accidental injury and death.

A related report, the National Academy of Science cites the huge volume of accidents of all kinds—a volume not surprising, judging by the rate of traffic, home, work and recreational injury suffered by Quad-Cityans each week. Expanded training in research and emergency services and equipment are urged, involving government, hospitals, ambulance staffs and others.

It would be of major help if more Quad-Cityans took advantage of the first-aid and resuscitation course made conveniently available by such organizations as the Red Cross, YMCA and civil defense units.

Numerous local residents are trained, but the need for an even greater number would become painfully clear in the event of a major disaster.

But They'll Never Improve
On Our Trusty Muskets

Word that "obsolete" M1 rifles are being issued to soldiers sent to a shooting school at standard M14 rifles admittedly "dates" us. We don't quite recall the eras of the Winchester and Springfield, but have vivid memories of the carbine and the Garand or M1, a 30-caliber weapon weighing over nine pounds and kicking only slightly less powerfully than a mule.

Now even the 1961-vintage eight-pound M14 is being phased in favor of the M16, a rapid-firing six-pound rifle designed especially for jungle warfare. And the M16 is envisioned as merely an interim replacement until a new standard weapon is developed.

At the current rate of obsolescence, compared to past retention of a single weapon for several decades, there may not be time for soldiers to learn the nomenclature of one rifle before it is replaced by the next.

Nothing is certain except death and taxes, but death doesn't get worse every time Congress meets.

Open Illinois Primaries in 1968

Republicans swept five of six statewide races in November, but the party could have been even more effective if it had avoided creating a slate of candidates that scared away primary opponents.

This is the opinion of outgoing State Treasurer Scott, who notes that earlier campaigning and the attention attracted by primary battle might have aided the GOP candidate who unsuccessfully sought to succeed him.

The point is worth noting by Quad-City voters, because both parties set themselves up as "mavericks" last spring, deciding that a few key leaders were better judges of potential candidates than were the people of Illinois. Candidates of ability were selected, but decisions were made by processes were ignored by both the Democratic and Republican parties.

Both would be wise to plan open primaries in Illinois in 1968. Voters desire a voice in picking their governmental officials are aware that closed primaries sharply limit their right to choose.

One test of a man's character is what he says "No" to.

Five new street lights, installed at various points on 18th street from Madison avenue over to the street, were given their first try-out.

New street lights are of the same model as the light which has been given a test at 21st and B streets. There, the light gave good service during the summer months. Because it was not known how the lights would be during the bad winter months, the five lights were installed on 18th street to give a more thorough test before being adopted by the city. The new lights are of the tungsten style and have 400 candlepower.

The advertising signs that have so greatly decorated the right-of-way of country roads in the past will be no longer tolerated on state aid roads, according to a ruling made by the State Highway Commission.

The commission has also notified the highway commissioner of each county in the state. Orders are that if the owners of the signs do not remove them, a crew of men will be sent around after a certain period to destroy the signs.

An ordinance requiring street cars to make near-side stops in Granite City was adopted by the city council at the regular meeting of that body. The ordinance provides a fine and order for a violation. It will go into effect at once.

New Plastic Halts Spread of Fires

(American Chemical Society)

The saving of human life and property may be aided by the development of new transparent plastic coatings for wood or metal which retard the spread of fire.

The coatings can be used in homes, schools, hospitals and office buildings. Since they are transparent, they do not obscure the rich grain of wood or shiny metal surfaces beneath them.

The coatings act to delay a fire's swelling, prevent heat, thereby creating an insulating surface of charred foam which delays further burning, to give fire-fighters a chance to go into action.

Moisture does not affect the new coatings, which are easier to apply and less expensive than earlier types.

It is felt that many deaths resulting from fires, ceilings and door and window frames were coated in this way.

Portable Buildings

An entire low-cost building has been made from a plastic foam, formed into compact slabs, prefabricated and folded up like an accordion, the American Chemical Society was told at a recent meeting.

The plastic foam has been made into temporary military barracks, low-cost housing structures for overseas troops, and cottages for vacationers in this country.

The major problem in the development of portable buildings has been its high cost. But now a new process involving the "cooking" of pine stumps promises to lower costs as much as 25%.

The products of this stump-cooking process, called "extender," have been used to replace as much as 60% of the more expensive plastic material, not only cutting costs but in some cases improving quality.

It is avoided if walls, ceilings and door and window frames were coated in this way.

Winter Road Advice—Use Seatbelts

(Auto Industries Highway Safety Committee)

Can seatbelts safeguard your family this winter? Yes, the evidence is overwhelming.

In a crash, seatbelts become "circles of safety" around you and your family, keeping you from being hurled through the windshield or an open door or thrown against objects inside the car.

Public officials, medical authorities, governmental agencies, fleet operators, safety, civic and women's groups all are stressing the need for seatbelts.

Look for a permanent label or seatbelts came as standard

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

OF CIVIL AIR PATROL

To the Editor:

President Johnson has declared Dec. 1 as Civil Air Patrol Day. However, many people do not know the significance of this organization. Maybe this letter will help.

The Civil Air Patrol was formed by civilian pilots on Dec. 1, 1941, just a week before Pearl Harbor. The objective of these pilots was to be able to fly without gun restrictions and to patrol the coast looking for enemy submarines.

Bombs were attacked to the underside of these light aircraft. Remember that these pilots were civilians who flew light planes such as the Cherokee and Cessna.

Despite the fact that the planes were so small, these people were credited with sighting over 100

Choral Groups at SIU-SW Schedule Holiday Program

Two versions of The Christmas Story will be presented by four choral groups ranging from 35 male singers to a 100-voice mixed choir in an annual pre-holiday performance. The program was moved to the direction of Leonard Van Camp of Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus.

The program at 8:15 p.m. in the Edwardsville senior high school gym will be open to the public without charge. The program was moved to the gymnasium this year because performances in the past two years in smaller quarters attracted overflow crowds.

Van Camp will feature his Community Choral Society, large-scale of the four groups and composed of both students and area vocalists, in Ron Nelson's Christmas Story, which was completed in 1958. The male choir and 60-voice women's glee club will join the choral society in the Nelson work, with two movements being sung by double choirs.

A 300-year-old Christmas story written by Heinrich Schuetz and based on the same biblical text as that of Nelson will spotlight the 48-voice Concord Choral and five soloists, including Tenor Irvin Martin of Bloomington who directs seven choirs there in his role as minister of music at the Second Presbyterian Church.

Leslie Bridenthal of SIU-SW's music faculty will sing two baritone solos in narration of the Nelson work. Student soloists joining Martin in the Schuetz version will be Shirley Simmons and Linda Pikey of Alton; Sharon Chamberlain of Godfrey, and Glenn Harsh, Collinsville graduate student.

2nd Sewage Treatment Bills Being Prepared for Mailing

Second quarter bills for sewage treatment are being prepared for mailing Monday night by Granite City council members for the office staff to work Saturday.

Alderman Moerlen explained the office would be closed to the public on Saturday, which would give the clerks time, without interruptions, to proceed with the work. Comptroller Robert Stevens was instructed to direct the work.

The bills are to go into the mail next week and will be for August, September and October. They are to be paid within 10 days of receipt in the sewage treatment office in the city hall.

Collection Amendments
Placed on first reading were amendments to the sewage treatment fee ordinance for billing and collecting the rental fees.

The ordinance had been submitted for final approval, but a change was made to first reading to await a forthcoming legal opinion from the Illinois Municipal League.

When Rutledge asked if the ordinance shouldn't specify the city clerk for the billing task and the treasurer to handle collections instead of the treasurer for both jobs, Alderman Moerlen, chairman of the Special Pollution Committee, said the initial purpose of the amendments is to make the treatment plant ordinance uniform with other sewer fee ordinances.

An amendment to the amendments was proposed by Alderman Johnson for the city clerk to do the billing and the treasurer to do the collecting, and it was approved.

The Municipal League opinion is to determine if in state statute interpretation the term clerk means comptroller when pertaining to city finances. Mayor Parney commented he was certain the state meant for cities with comptrollers to use them.

Authority for Liens
The amendments also would give the treasurer authority to file liens against property after 30 days if the sewage treatment fee is not paid. The basic fee is $2.70 a quarter per household or apartment and on a graduated scale for large water users and for firms dumping excessive amounts of suspended solids in the sewers.

Responsibility for payments of the fees will fall on the user in rental property, and if any property is sold, the owner is to notify the city treasurer within 10 days after the transfer of deed. Renters also are to be responsible for such notices.

Moerlen reported that Jennison-Wright Corp. no longer is dumping cesspits in the sewer lines. He added that the treatment plant superintendent and engineer are inspecting equipment at the plant to determine damage and that a report to the council with a recommendation will be made in the near future.

Koenig is Named To State CD Post
Peter C. McGillivray, president of the U. S. Civil Defense Council and director of civil defense for the city of Detroit, Mich., this week announced the appointment of Civil Defense Director Victor H. Koenig of Granite City as council representative for Illinois.

Koenig also was re-appointed for a second term to the USCDC's constitution, by-laws and resolutions committee. As the USCDC state representative, the local CD official will serve as liaison officer between the council's executive committee and civil defense organization throughout Illinois.

He succeeds Col. Charles H. Buckingham, Aurora civil defense director, who has been elected assistant vice-president of Region IV, including the states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Madison County Civil Defense Director Theodore Todoroff of Granite City, also was named to the information and education subcommittee for organizational planning by the new national USCDC president. Concerned with economic stabilization and preservation of resources, the committee functions in a liaison capacity to the Office of Emergency Planning.

In addition to heading the local civil defense organization, Koenig also serves as president of the Southern Illinois Civil Defense Association and is a member of the Illinois Civil Defense Directors' Association.

This weekend he plans to attend the first general session of the latter organization, to be held at Peoria, Ill. The state association completed its organizational procedures earlier this year, under the leadership of Larry Miller of East St. Louis.

Truck Drivers Achieve Million Mile Record
Two local residents are among the 79 St. Louis-based intercity drivers for Consolidated Freightways who recently achieved a million consecutive miles of accident-free driving. They are C. J. DeRuntz, 1818 Primrose avenue, and L. C. Woodruff Jr., 2538 East 25th street.

By accomplishing the safety marathon record, the St. Louis-based truck drivers join five other divisions of the freight transportation firm, including two in Illinois, which established similar records in 1966.

Girl Scouts of Neighborhoods
Two, Three, Four and Five will be held at the Granite City Memorial Gymnasium, opening with a flag ceremony conducted by Senior Troop 110. Mrs. Ruth Andrews will direct group singing, accompanied on the organ by Jack Johnson.

Junior Troop 1097 will present a program of Christmas poems, and Junior Troop 941 will present a program entitled "Skip to My Lou." The Merry Cadettes of Cadette Troop 231 also will present part of the program. Other features of the program will include "Jingle Bells and Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" by Junior Troop 901, the "Gay Nineties" by Cadette Troop 234; "We're Scouts" by Brownie Troop 208 and Junior Troop 242, and "Christmas Carolers" by Junior Troop 262.

Distribution of baskets will be made. Protestant Welfare American Red Cross and the Salvation Army.

Girl Scouts of all age groups, from Brownies to Senior Girl Scouts, have been busy for the past two weeks decorating Christmas favors and preparing tree ornaments, as well as filling baskets for the needy.

Girl Scout leaders of Neighborhoods Two, Three, Four and Five for the Festival program include Mrs. Wilma Hancock, Mrs. Virginia Mariette, Mrs. Zoe Schofield and Mrs. Joyce Sikorsky.

Temporary Road being Built at New School

Temporary improvement to a 510-foot stretch of Maryville road between the concrete pavement at Parkway school and Stratford lane was authorized Monday night by Granite City council members to open the roadway to traffic.

The rutted, muddy stretch had been blocked off and caused considerable congestion at the school in morning and afternoon hours as there was only one access roadway to the school.

Slag is to be used as temporary fill, with the cost set at $410. An added cost of $255 will be for 100 feet of concrete culvert for drainage.

The work is being carried out by a street department crew. The city has an 88-foot right-of-way for 145 feet and just 25 feet remaining for a distance of 365 feet.

The temporary roadway will require close watch for maintenance. Alderman A. Sternberg, chairman of the Street committee, advised the council. When asked where the funds for the project were coming from, Sternberg said the street department maintenance fund will be utilized.

A slag walkway also is being installed by the city along new Western Park adjacent to the school, and an ordinance was adopted prohibiting parking along the east side of Maryville road from the school to O'Hare avenue.

An ordinance was adopted establishing two-hour parking zones on sections of two streets—both sides of the 2200 block of Illinois avenue and in the 2500 block of Madison avenue on the west side for a distance of 80 feet south from 26th street.

Council members voted 9-4-4 for an expenditure of $10.40 to replace a pair of glasses broken by Virgil Crider, a street department worker, while moving brush with a highlift machine.

Income Tax Aid to be Offered Again Locally

Income tax assistance will be offered again to Quad-City residents by the Internal Revenue Service, starting Jan. 9 and continuing on each Monday through April 10, provided the Granite City council furnishes office space in the city hall.

A request for an office was presented to the council Monday night by E. C. Wolf, chief of facilities at Springfield, and was referred to the City Building committee for recommendation.

In past years, the city has given permission for use of the old-council room on the second floor, which has a large seating capacity.

The proposed hours are from 9 a.m. until noon and from 1 to 4 p.m. each Monday, starting Jan. 9.

Alderman Bartosik, chairman of the committee, said a recommendation would be presented next week.

Central Pupils to Give Yule Concert Tuesday

Central junior high school band and chorus will present a Christmas concert Tuesday, Dec. 6, at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

The concert will feature a calypso Christmas carol by the chorus, accompanied by string bass and percussion. Approximately 100 pupils will participate. Mrs. Dolores Barker will direct the chorus and Miss Vivian Raffaelle the band. There will be no admission charge.

RC Cola Window Shot

Vandals shot a hole through a front window of the R. C. Cola plant office on Route 3 it was reported Monday afternoon to police. A .22 caliber weapon apparently was used.

Former GC Man Honored For Materiel Deployment

Charles R. Rapp, former Granite City resident and an aircraft equipment specialist in the U. S. Army Materiel Command, has been officially commended by the President for his outstanding contribution in the successful deployment of the 1st Cavalry Division aircraft to Vietnam in 1965.

In a person letter to Rapp, President Johnson said: "Without the logistic support of the Army Materiel Command, our forces in Vietnam would not be in the splendid shape that they are today. I just wanted you and your associates to know that what you are doing does not go unnoticed, for it is one of the great moments in our military history."

Rapp, assigned to the office of the project manager for the Iroquois helicopter, serves as liaison officer at the Army Aeronautical Depot Maintenance Center at Corpus Christi, Tex. He is responsible for exercising maintenance and supply surveillance over the overhaul program for the Iroquois family of helicopters.

During the deployment of the 1st Cavalry division in August-September 1965, he was called on to provide advice and assistance in planning and carrying out the monumental task of moving the division with its support units, aircraft and equipment to Vietnam. As a result more than 1200 UH-1 helicopters were delivered to Vietnam without loss or serious damage.

In addition to the President's letter, Rapp has received commendations from the Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army, Commanding General of the 1st Cavalry Division; Commanding General of the U. S. Continental Army Command and the Commanding General of the Materiel Command.

Rapp is a native of Granite City and was graduated from Granite City high school in 1939. He later attended Murray State Teachers College in Kentucky and the University of Iowa. He is married to the former Betty Ann Wood of Springfield, Mo.

His father, Joseph F. Rapp, resides at 2429 Lynch avenue.

Two Fires Cause $300 Loss to Home, Firm

Two fires, one at a home and another at a concrete plant, caused more than $300 damage Tuesday afternoon and evening.

At 6:40 p.m., firemen were called to the home of Patricia Wilson, 2925 Madison avenue, where an apparent short circuit in electrical wiring started a fire in a bedroom closet.

Fire children were at the home at the time, and a 15-year-old daughter of the Wilsons summoned help from neighbors. The parents were downtown shopping. Damage was estimated at $45 to the building and $65 to the contents. There was smoke damage to clothing in the closet and to carpeting.

A fire started between the walls at the Reeves Concrete Co., 2801 Circle drive, at 2:40 p.m., caused by men working with a cutting torch. Insulation burned. Damage was estimated at $200.

Accident from Driveway

While backing from her driveway, the auto of Lena B. Trece, 2433 Missouri avenue, struck the right rear of another driven by Marian B. Bolt, 2614 West 26th street, at 6:45 a.m. Tuesday. The Trece woman was charged with failure to yield right-of-way and was summoned for a hearing by Dec. 12.

GC May Have Future Astronaut in Lt. Haack Tomorrow is Deadline For Basket Applications

Granite City may have an astronaut in the U. S. space program in a few years.

The interested candidate is First Lt. John Reed Haack, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Haack, 2203 Edna street, who first will spend a tour of duty in Southeast Asia. The pilot of an Air Force F-105 Thunderchief fighter plane, he currently is being transferred from Germany, where he and his family spent the last year and a half, to an air base in Thailand. He said he is seriously thinking of making a career of the Air Force, and when asked this week about his goal, he simply replied, "I want to be an astronaut."

Lt. Haack appears to have the qualifications, especially the mental equipment. He was graduated from St. Louis University in 1963 with magna cum laude honors, receiving a degree in electrical engineering.

Fit for Capsule

And at 5 feet, 9 inches tall and weighing 150 pounds, he should not take up too much room in a space capsule.

He will be 25 years old in January, and though most astronauts today are about 10 years or more older, he said NASA officials now are selecting younger personnel. "I was hoping to make the moon flight, but it looks now it may be some future space program," he said. "I'll make it if I'm lucky."

Lt. Haack was commissioned in the Air Force at the time of his graduation. He started pilot training the following fall at Del Rio, Tex., and received combat crew training in the Thunderchief at Las Vegas, Nev.

Scout Camp Honeymoon

Before doing so, however, he was married to a St. Louis U. coed at Toledo, Ohio, her home town in Rosary Cathedral. They honeymooned during the summer at Boy Scout Camp Canaan, where he was on the staff for the sixth consecutive season.

Lt. Haack, his wife, Kathleen, and daughter, Karen, now two, went to Germany in May 1965. His training flights took him through Western Europe, North Africa and England.

While spending much of his leave at home, he smilingly and at times humorously described 1ST LT. JOHN R. HAACK of Granite City boards his F-105 Thunderchief fighter plane, a step he hopes will lead to the U. S. space program and an assignment as an astronaut.

many of the incidents and places he had experienced. But he added that he started volunteering for duty in Southeast Asia a year ago when the Vietnam war was becoming more intense.

"Job and Duty"

When asked why, he seriously answered, "I feel it is my job and duty to be over there. It is what I have been trained to do." Born in Granite City, Lt. Haack attended Sacred Heart grade school and Assumption high school where he was valedictorian of his class. At St. Louis U., he was captain of the school's rugby team.

His father is employed at General Steel Industries and his mother at Friedman's store in Madison. A younger brother, James, is a graduate of Washington University and now lives with his family in Memphis, Tenn., where he is an architect.

Lt. Haack was scheduled to leave today by auto for Toledo, where his wife and daughter will stay while he is gone. His friends believe it may take him longer to get there than it will go to the moon some day.

Tomorrow is the final day that master roster compiled by the applications for Christmas baskets through the Salvation Army's "Tree of Lights" program will be accepted at the Army's headquarters, 1421 Nineteenth street. More than 425 applications have been received since Nov. 7.

Starting Monday, applications for food baskets will be taken at the Catholic Charities office, 2012 Delmar avenue, continuing from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, until the week of Dec. 19, it was announced today by Mrs. Lorraine Parkinson, director.

Quad-City families also may apply for Christmas baskets at the Protestant Welfare office, 2032 Edison avenue, beginning Thursday, Dec. 8. Office hours are set from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, Mrs. Marie Whittle, association director said.

Both organizations coordinate their application lists with the

Our revolutionary 165-hp OHC 6 is so revolutionary we had to do something special with it. So we made it standard in all Tempests and LeMans. You see, it was inspired by those famous overhead cam engines in expensive European sports cars. With a few Pontiac refinements, of course. lot of big V-8s seem awfully extravagant. Which is why we say, with a six like this who needs an eight? Incidentally, a four-way hazard warning flasher, backup lights, and GM's energy absorbing steering column are some of the safety features also standard in Tempests and LeMans. ## GC Bills, Payroll Total $81,621

Bills amounting to $38,175 and a half-month payroll totaling $45,446 were approved Monday night by Granite City council members.

Biggest item on the bill list was $10,409 paid to National Disposal Service for garbage and trash collections during November; and next in line was $20,243 of motor fuel tax funds paid for the improvement to sections of Olive and Chestnut streets. Of that total, $18,109 went to the contractor, A. H. Seibold Co., and $2134 to the engineer, Research, Planning & Design Associates.

A number of expense allowances also were listed for the end of the month, including $450 paid to 14 aldermen. The $10 allowances were to Aldermen Basarich, Bartosik, Boyd, Dallas, Fry, Green, Johnson, Nann, Poulos, Rutledge, Whitmer, Robertson and Moerlein for November and $80 to Alderman Parmley for October and November.

At the request of Alderman Nann, the $292 allowance for Mayor Partney was separated from the bill list. A related story on that debate appears elsewhere in this issue.

Other allowance approved were $100 for Civil Defense Director Victor Koenig and $50 each for Police Chief Willard, Building Inspector Orville Deltour, Street Supt. William Warfield and Delbert Lampher, city maintenance man.

GC May Apply for Urban Renewal Planning Funds

A meeting to outline urban renewal plans for Granite City and to decide upon application for a planning grant of federal tax funds amounting to about $40,000 is to be arranged by the City Plan Commission.

William F. Hoelscher, chairman of the commission, advised the council in a letter Monday night of the possible availability of federal funds and the need for a meeting of council members with the Plan Commission and representatives of the Chicago office of Urban Renewal.

The Plan Commission chairman explained the city's cost to make the application would be $1000 to $1200 to hire a professional planning firm to prepare the necessary forms. He added that the $40,000 planning fund is non-refundable, and that there is an apparent need for at least three urban renewal projects in the city.

The commissioner mentioned the possibility of urban renewal for expansion at the hospital, downtown off-street parking areas and possible areas for industrial development purposes. First, he said, the city must conduct a study to determine locations of eligible areas. In the joint meeting, he added, the council, commissioners and federal officials could fully discuss the proposal. "Successful utilization of the federal program as urban renewal will depend upon both expert planning and full support of the council," Hoelscher advised the council.

Man Fined $50, Costs

Larry J. Canada, 17, of 2332 Terminal avenue, was fined $50 plus $5 costs Monday in magistrate's court on a charge of leaving the scene of a property damage accident. The charge was filed Oct. 17.

Relatives and friends of Quad City military personnel have until Monday to submit the serviceman's name for inclusion in the Press-Record's "Yule Mail Call" project. The final list will be published in next Thursday's issue.

To date more than 500 names and addresses of local servicemen and women have appeared in 18 editions of the newspaper. Several members of the Armed Forces whose names and addresses were published in early "Yule Mail Call" lists, reappeared in subsequent issues.

Force and Naval personnel who their addresses changed to a San Francisco APO or FPO number, denoting a new assignment in Vietnam.

Many local groups and individuals have sent packages and Christmas greeting cards to servicemen whose names have appeared on the Press-Record's address to the Press-Record office, 1815 Delmar by Monday.

Persons still wishing to include a serviceman's name in next week's "Yule Mail Call" list are asked to send or bring the name, rank, serial number and correct address to the Press-Record office, 1815 Delmar by Monday.
